

Hitesh Chimanlal Doshi has been associated with Waaree Energies since 1999 and is currently responsible for, inter alia, overseeing Waaree's financial performance, investments, and other business ventures, providing strategic advice to the Board, developing and executing the company's business strategies and establishing policies and legal guidelines. He has over 22 years of experience in the engineering industry.

Hitesh Chimanlal Doshi holds a bachelor's degree in commerce from the University of Mumbai. He also holds a doctorate in professional entrepreneurship in business project management from the European Continental University.